

INVITATION

Learners with Autism Spectrum Disorder Invited to Participate in Research

Research Title: Second/Foreign Language Learning: Exploring the Experiences & Sense of Efficacy of Learners with Autism Spectrum Disorder

Researcher: Michelle - Trainee Educational and Child Psychologist (Mary Immaculate College, Limerick)
Email: 0752355@micstudent.mic.ul.ie

Why?

The voice of the learner with ASD is important for psychological research & to support learners with ASD in their education.

Who?

You can participate if you are:

- A teenager in Ireland with Autism Spectrum Disorder
- AND
- Attending post-primary school
- AND
- Studying a second/foreign language (Irish, French, Spanish, German, etc!

What?

- Participants do a short interview (In Person or Virtually)
- Questions on language learning beliefs and experiences
- Visuals used to support interview experience

Do you know someone who might be interested in this research?

- If you wish to participate or if you think your child or student may wish to participate, please email for further details: 0752355@micstudent.mic.ul.ie
- Information sheets available for schools, parents & learners
- Consent forms to be signed
- Interviews to take place in person in school (with Covid-19 precautions) OR VIRTUALLY!